

Current Odds (need 270 of 538 to win)

215 HW v 219 TV v 104 Toss-Ups

226 & 312 rather than 260 & 278 (I predicted)

Trump/Vance may take PA also. But considering how corrupt that state is that's anyone guess right now.

AZ and NV will be super close, while being rigged in Phoenix and Las Vegas, but TV will squeak by.

WI voters should find a way to get TV over the line even though Milwaukee will be rigged.

MI's central planner machine will be too dug in to beat; even though it will be close. NE2 is a toss-up too.

Basically I called it again except that MI went Trump which was the one nice surprise I was not counting on.
